LR20-FL00-CVFL-6 PARENTING-TIME GUIDELINES

(A) Except in unusual circumstances, contact between minor children and non-custodial parents shall be based upon "reasonable visitation with reasonable-notice." "Reasonable visitation" contemplates that parties shall take into consideration their respective schedules, economic circumstances, and geographic locations, as well as the schedules and activities of the minor children. "Reasonable visitation" shall be interpreted not to require any particular pattern of contact, but rather that pattern which best fits the need of the parents and the children at that specific time.

(B) Except when otherwise ordered by the Court visitation shall be as set forth in the INDIANA SUPREME COURT PARENTING TIME GUIDELINES AS ADOPTED BY ELKHART COUNTY.

(C) A copy of the INDIANA SUPREME COURT PARENTING TIME GUIDELINES AS ADOPTED BY ELKHART COUNTY shall be attached to the form of order or decree setting forth the visitation order. Counsel, or unrepresented parties, submitting such a form of order or decree are encouraged to reduce the number of pages required to reproduce the Guidelines by using, smaller type, so long as the resulting document remains legible. Using of both sides of each page upon which the Guidelines are printed is also encouraged.

(D) The Courts of Elkhart County collectively acknowledge that the parenting time guidelines may be changed from time to time. Those Guidelines which are in effect at the time that a custody visitation order is entered shall govern the conduct of the parties until modified by order of the appropriate court. A change in Guidelines subsequent to the entry of such an order may constitute a change of circumstances of sufficient magnitude to support modification of that order.

INDIANA SUPREME COURT PARENTING TIME GUIDELINES AS ADOPTED BY ELKHART COUNTY

PREAMBLE

The Indiana Parenting Time Guidelines are based on the premise that it is usually in a child's best interest to- have frequent, meaningful and continuing contact with each parent. It is assumed that both parents nurture their child in important ways, significant to the development and well being of the child. The Guidelines also acknowledge that scheduling parenting time is more difficult when separate households are involved and requires persistent effort and communication between parents to promote the best interest of the children involved. The purpose of these guidelines is to provide a model which may be adjusted depending, upon the unique needs and circumstances of each family. These Guidelines are based upon the developmental stages of children.

A child whose parents live apart has special needs related to the parent-child relationship. A child's needs and ability to cope with the parent's situation change as the child matures. Parents should consider these needs as they negotiate parenting time. They should be flexible and create a parenting time arrangement which addresses the unique needs of the child and their circumstances.

SCOPE OF APPLICATION

1. Generally These Guidelines are applicable to all child custody situations, including paternity cases and cases involving joint legal custody where one person has primary physical custody. However, they are not applicable to situations involving family violence, substance abuse, risk of flight with a child, or any other circumstances the court reasonably believes endanger the child's physical health or safety, or significantly impair the child's emotional development.
2. Presumption There is a presumption that the Indiana Parenting Time Guidelines are applicable in all cases covered by this Guidelines. Any deviation from these Guidelines by either the parties or the court must be accompanied by a written explanation indicating why the deviation is necessary or appropriate in the case.

A CHILD'S BASIC NEEDS

To insure more responsible parenting and to promote the healthy adjustment and growth of a child each parent should recognize and address a child's basic needs:

1. To know that the parents' decision to live apart is not the child's fault.
2. To develop and maintain an independent relationship with each parent and to have the continuing care and guidance from each parent.
3. To be free from having, to side with either parent and to be free from conflict between the parents.
4. To have a relaxed, secure relationship with each parent without being placed in a position to manipulate one parent against the other.
5. To enjoy regular and consistent time with each parent.
6. To be financially supported by each parent, regardless of how much time each parent spends with the child.
7. To be physically safe and adequately supervised when in the care of each parent and to have a stable, consistent and responsible child care arrangement when not supervised by a parent.
8. To develop and maintain meaningful relationships with other significant adults (grandparents, stepparents and other relatives) as long as these relationships do not interfere with or replace the child's primary relationship with the parents.

OTHER CONSIDERATIONS:

1. It is usually in the children's best interests that each parent have frequent, meaningful and continuing contact with them.
2. The parents, in exercising visitation, should be flexible enough to adapt to the circumstances of each other and to the children.
3. Parents should at all times avoid speaking negatively about each other and should firmly discourage such conduct by relatives or friends.
4. Children should never be used by one parent to spy on the other.
5. Each parent should encourage the children to respect the other.
6. The basic rules of conduct and discipline established by the custodial parent should be the baseline standard for both parents, and consistently enforced by both so that the children do not receive mixed signals.

SECTION I GENERAL RULES APPLICABLE TO PARENTING TIME

(A) COMMUNICATIONS

1. Between Parents Parents shall at all times keep each other advised of their home and work addresses and telephone numbers. Notice of any change in this information shall be given to the other parent in writing. All communications concerning a child shall be conducted between the parents. Any communication shall occur at reasonable times and places unless circumstances require otherwise. A child shall not be used to exchange documents or financial information between parents.
2. With A Child Generally A child and a parent shall be entitled to private communications without interference from the other parent. A child shall never be used by one parent to spy or report on the other. Each parent shall encourage the child to respect and love the other parent. Parents shall at all times avoid speaking negatively about each other in or near the presence of the child, and they shall firmly discourage such conduct by relatives or friends.
3. With A Child By Telephone Both parents shall have reasonable phone access to their child at all times. Telephone communication with the child by either parent to the residence where the child is located shall be conducted at reasonable hours, shall be of reasonable duration and at reasonable intervals, without interference from the other parent. If a parent uses an answering machine, voice mail or a pager, messages left for a child shall be promptly communicated to the child and the call returned.
4. With A Child By Mail A parent and a child shall have right to communicate privately by e-mail and faxes, and by cards, letters and packages without interference by the other parent.
5. (B) IMPLEMENTING PARENTING TIME

1. Transportation Responsibilities Unless otherwise agreed between the parents, the non-custodial parent shall provide transportation for the child at the start of the scheduled parenting time and the custodial parent shall provide transportation for the child at the end of the scheduled parenting time.
In cases where jurisdiction is the residence of both parents and children at the time of the initial order, and one of the parents later leaves the jurisdiction, thus changing the visitation pattern, the Court will give strong consideration to imposing most of the costs of transportation necessary to facilitate future visitation on the party that moved. However, the Court will also consider other factors, such as the economic circumstances of the parents and the reasons prompting the move.

2. Punctuality Each parent shall have the child ready for exchange at the beginning and at the end of the scheduled parenting, time and shall be on time in picking up and returning the child. The parents shall communicate as early as possible regarding any situation that would interfere with the timely exchange of the child.

3. Clothing The custodial parent shall send an appropriate and adequate supply of clean clothing with the child and the non-custodial parent shall return such clothing in a clean condition. Each parent shall advise the other, as far in advance as possible, of any special activities so that the appropriate clothing, may be available to the child.

4. Privacy of Residence A parent may not enter the residence of the other except by express invitation, regardless of whether a parent retains a property interest in the residence of the other. Accordingly, the child shall be picked up at the front entrance of the appropriate residence unless the parents agree otherwise. The person delivering the child shall not leave until the child is safely inside.

(C) CHANGES IN SCHEDULED PARENTING TIME

Introduction Parents should recognize there will be occasions when modification of the existing parenting schedule will be necessary. Parents should exercise reasonable judgment in their dealings with each other and with their child. Parents should be flexible in scheduling parenting time and should consider the benefits to the child of frequent, meaningful and regular contact with each parent and the schedules of the child and each parent.

1. Scheduled Parenting Time To Occur As Planned Parenting time is both a right and a responsibility, and scheduled parenting time shall occur as planned. If a parent is unable to provide personal care for the child during scheduled parenting time, then that parent shall provide alternate child care or pay the reasonable costs of child care caused by the failure to exercise the scheduled parenting time.

2. Adjustments to Schedule/"Make Up" Time Whenever there is a need to adjust the established parenting schedules because of events outside the normal family routine, the parent who becomes aware of the circumstance shall notify the other parent as far in advance as possible. Both parents shall then attempt to reach a mutually acceptable adjustment to the parenting schedule. If an adjustment results in one parent losing scheduled parenting time with the child, "make-up" time should be exercised as soon as possible. If the parents cannot agree on make-up time, the parent who lost the time shall select the make-up time within one month of the missed time.

3. Opportunity for Additional Parenting Time When it becomes necessary that a child be cared for by a person other than a parent or a family member, the parent needing the child care shall first offer the other parent the opportunity for additional parenting time. The other parent is under no obligation to provide the child care. If the other parent elects to provide this care, it shall be done at no cost.

(D) EXCHANGE OF INFORMATION

1. School Records Each parent shall promptly provide the other with copies of a child's grade reports and notices from school as they are received. A parent shall not interfere with the right of the other parent to communicate directly with school personnel concerning a child.

2. School Activities Each parent shall promptly notify the other parent of all school activities. A parent shall not interfere with the right of the other parent to communicate directly with school personnel concerning a child's school activities. The parent exercising parenting time shall be responsible to transport the child to school related activities.

3. Other Activities Each parent shall promptly notify the other parent of all organized events in a child's life which permit parental and family participation. A parent shall not interfere with the opportunity of the other parent to volunteer for or participate in a child's activities.

4. Health Information If a child is undergoing evaluation or treatment, the custodial parent shall communicate that fact to the non-custodial parent. Each parent shall immediately notify the other of any medical emergencies or illness of the child that requires medical attention. If a child is taking prescription or nonprescription medication, the custodial parent shall provide the non-custodial parent with a sufficient amount of medication with instructions whenever the non-custodial parent is exercising parenting time. The custodial parent shall give written authorization to the child's health care providers permitting an ongoing release of all information regarding the child to the non-custodial parent including the right of the provider to discuss the child's situation with the non-custodial parent.

5. Insurance A parent who has insurance coverage on the child shall supply the other parent with current insurance cards, an explanation of benefits, and a list of insurer-approved or HMO-qualified health care providers in the area where each parent lives. If the insurance company requires specific forms, the insured parent shall provide those forms to the other parent.

A custodial parent who, except in an emergency, takes the children to a doctor, dentist, or other provider not so approved or qualified shall pay any additional costs thus created. However, when there is a change in insurance which requires a change in medical care providers and a child has a chronic illness, thoughtful consideration should be given by the parties to what is more important, allowing the child to remain with the original provider or the economic consequences of that decision. When there is an obligation to pay medical expenses, parents shall cooperate in submitting bills to the appropriate insurance carrier. Thereafter, the parent responsible for paying the balance of the bill shall make arrangements directly with the health care provider and shall inform the other parent thereof.

(E) RESOLUTION OF PROBLEMS

1. Disagreements Generally When a disagreement occurs regarding, parenting time and the requirements of these Guidelines, both parents shall make every effort to discuss options, including mediation, in an attempt to resolve the dispute before going to court.

2. Mediation If court action is initiated, the parents shall enter into mediation unless otherwise ordered by the court. This decision will usually be made by the Judge at the first or initial hearing.

3. Child Hesitation If a child is reluctant to participate in parenting time, each parent shall be responsible to ensure the child complies with the scheduled parenting time. In no event shall a child be allowed to make the decision on whether scheduled parenting time takes place.

4. Relocation When either parent considers a change of residence, reasonable advance notice of the intent to move shall be provided to the other parent so they can discuss necessary changes in the parenting schedule as well as the allocation of transportation costs in exercising parenting time which may result from the move.

5. Withholding Support or Parenting Time Neither parenting time nor child support shall be withheld because of either parent's failure to comply with a court order. Only the court may enter sanctions for noncompliance. A child has the right both to support and parenting time, neither of which is dependent upon the other. If there is a violation of either requirement, the remedy is to apply to the court for appropriate sanctions.

6. Enforcement of Parenting Time
- a) Contempt Sanctions. Court orders regarding parenting time must be followed by both parents. Unjustified violations of any of the provisions contained in the order may subject the offender to contempt sanctions. These sanctions may include fine, imprisonment and/or community service.
 - b) Injunctive Relief. Under Indiana law, a non-custodial parent who regularly pays support and is barred from parenting time by the custodial parent may file an application for an injunction to enforce parenting time under Indiana Code § 31-17-4-4.
 - c) Criminal Penalties. Interference with custody or visitation rights may be a Crime. Indiana Code § 35-42-3-4.
 - d) Attorney Fees. In any court action to enforce an order granting or denying parenting time, a court may award reasonable attorney fees and expenses of litigation. A court may consider whether the parent seeking attorney fees substantially prevailed and whether the parent violating the order did so knowingly or intentionally. A court can also award attorney fees and expenses against a parent who pursues a frivolous or vexatious court action.

SECTION II SPECIFIC PARENTING TIME PROVISIONS

INTRODUCTION

The best parenting plan is one created by parents which fulfills the unique needs of the child and the parents. The specific provisions which follow are designed to assist parents and the court in the development of a parenting plan. They represent the minimum recommended time a parent should have to maintain frequent, meaningful, and continuing contact with a child.

(A) INFANTS AND TODDLERS

The first few years of a child's life are recognized as being critical to that child's ultimate development. Infants (under eighteen months) and toddlers (eighteen months to three years) have a great need for continuous contact with the primary care giver who provides a sense of security, nurturing and predictability. It is thought best if scheduled parenting time in infancy be minimally disruptive to the infant's schedule.

The Courts of Elkhart county are disinclined to order visitation in the custodial parent's home, and believe that children's best interest are most often served by expanding contact between the non-custodial parent and his or her children.

- 1. Overnight-Parenting Time Unless it can be demonstrated that the non-custodial parent has not had regular care responsibilities for the child, parenting time shall include overnights. If the non-custodial parent has not previously exercised regular care responsibilities for the child, then parenting time shall not include overnights prior to the child's third birthday, except as provided below.
- 2. Parenting Time In Early Infancy (Birth through Age 9 months)
 - a) Birth through Age 4 months:
 - 1. Three (3) non-consecutive "days" per week of two (2) hours in length.
 - 2. All scheduled holidays of two hours in length.
 - 3. Overnight if appropriate under Rule 1 above but not to exceed one (1) 24 hour period per week.
 - b) Age 5 months through Age 9 Months:
 - 1. Three (3) non-consecutive "days" per week of three (3) hours per day. The child is to be returned at least one (1) hour before evening bedtime.
 - 2. All scheduled holidays of three (3) hours in length. The child is to be - returned at least one hour before evening bedtime.

3. Overnight if appropriate under Rule I above but not to exceed one (1) 24 hour period per week.
3. Parenting Time In Later Infancy (Age 10 Months through Age 18 Months)
- a) Age 10 Months through Age 12 Months:
 1. Three (3) non-consecutive "days" per week, with one day on a "non-work" day for eight (8) hours. The other days shall be for three (3) hours each day. The child is to be returned at least one (1) hour before evening bedtime.
 2. All scheduled holidays for eight (8) hours. The child is to be returned at least one (1) hour before evening bedtime.
 3. Overnight if appropriate under Rule I above but not to exceed one (1) 24 hour period per week.
 - b) Age 13 Months through Age 18 Months:
 1. Three (3) non-consecutive "days" per week, with one day on a "non-work" day for ten (10) hours. The other days shall be for three hours each day. The child is to be returned at least one (1) hour before evening bedtime.
 2. All scheduled holidays for eight (8) hours. The child is to be returned at least (1) hour before evening bedtime.
 3. Overnight if appropriate under Rule I above but not to exceed one (1) 24 hour period per week.
 - c) Age 19 Months through 36 Months:
 1. Alternate weekends on Saturdays for ten (10) hours and on Sundays for ten (10) hours. The child is to be returned at least one hour before bedtime, unless overnight is appropriate under Rule 1.
 2. One (1) "day" preferably in midweek for three (3) hours the child to be returned at least one (1) hour before evening bedtime. Unless overnight during the week is appropriate under Rule 1.
 3. All scheduled holidays for ten (10) hours. The child is to be returned one hour before bedtime.
 4. If the non-custodial parent who did not initially have substantial care responsibilities has exercised the scheduled parenting time under these guidelines for at least nine (9) continuous months, overnight parenting time may take place.

(B) CHILD 3 YEARS OF AGE AND OLDER

1. Regular Parenting Time
 - a) On alternating weekends from Friday at 6:00 PM until Sunday at 6:00 PM (the times may change to fit the parents' schedules).
 - b) One (1) evening per week, preferably in mid-week, for a period of up to four hours but the child shall be returned no later than 9:00 PM.
 - c) On all scheduled holidays.
2. Extended Parenting Time (Child through 4 Years Old) Up to four (4) non-consecutive weeks during the year beginning at 4:00 PM on Sunday until 4:00 PM on the following Sunday, the non-custodial parent to have sixty (60) days advance notice of the use of a particular week.
3. Extended Parenting Time (Child 5 and older) One-half of the summer vacation. The time may be either consecutive or split into two (2) segments. The non-custodial parent shall give notice to the custodial parent of the selection by April 1 of each year. If such notice is not given, the custodial parent shall make the selection.

If a child attends year-round school, the periodic breaks should be divided equally between the parents.

If a child attends summer school, the parent exercising parenting time shall be responsible for the child's transportation to and attendance at school.

During any extended summer period of more than two (2) consecutive weeks with the non-custodial parent, the custodial parent shall have the benefit of the regular parenting time schedule set forth above, unless impracticable because of distance created by out of town vacations.

Similarly, during the summer period when the children are with the custodial parent for more than two (2) consecutive weeks, the non-custodial parent's regular parenting time continues, unless impracticable because of distance created by out of town vacations. Notice of an employer's restrictions on the vacation time of either parent shall be delivered to the other parent as soon as that information is available. In scheduling parenting time the employer imposed restrictions on either parent's time shall be considered by the parents in arranging their time with their child.

(C) PARENTING TIME FOR THE ADOLESCENT AND TEENAGER

1. Regular Parenting Time Regular parenting time by the non-custodial parent on alternating, weekends, during holidays, and/or an extended time during the summer months as set forth in the Parenting Time Guidelines (Section II B) shall apply to the adolescent and teenager.
2. Special Considerations In exercising parenting time with a teenager, the non-custodial parent shall make reasonable efforts to accommodate a teenager's participation in his or her regular academic, extracurricular and social activities.

D) HOLIDAY PARENTING TIME SCHEDULE

1. Conflicts Between Regular and Holiday Weekends The Holiday Parenting Time Schedule shall take precedence over regularly scheduled and extended parenting time. Extended parenting time takes precedence over regular parenting time unless otherwise indicated in these Guidelines. If the non-custodial parent misses a regular weekend because it is the custodial parent's holiday, the regular alternating parenting time schedule will resume following the holiday. If the non-custodial parent receives two consecutive weekends because of a holiday, the regular alternating parenting time schedule will resume the following weekend. The holiday weekend shall not affect the regularly alternating weekend schedule which may result in a parent receiving three (3) consecutive weekends. It is anticipated that missed weekends due to the holiday weekend will balance out for each parent given the alternating schedule for the holidays provided for in these guidelines.

2. Holiday Schedule The following parenting times are applicable in all situations referenced in these Guidelines as "scheduled holidays" with the limitations applied as indicated for children under the age of three years.

a) Special Days

1. Mother's Day With the child's mother from Friday at 6:00 PM until Sunday at 6:00 PM.
2. Father's Day With the child's father from Friday at 6:00 PM until Sunday at 6:00 PM.
3. Child's Birthday In even numbered years the non-custodial parent shall have all of the children on each child's birthday from 9:00 AM until 9:00 PM. However, if the birthday falls on a school day, then from 5:00 PM until 8:00 PM. In odd numbered years the custodial parent shall have all of the children on each child's birthday from 9:00 AM until 9:00 PM, however, If such day falls on a school day, then from 5:00 PM until 8:00 PM.

4. Parent's Birthday From 9:00 AM until 9:00 PM with that parent. However, if the parent's birthday falls on a school day, then from 5:00 PM until 8:00 PM.

- b) Christmas Vacation One-half of the period which will begin at 8:00 PM on the evening the child is released from school and concludes at 8:00 PM on the day before school resumes. If the parents cannot agree on the division of this period, the custodial parent shall have the first half in even numbered years. In those years when Christmas does not fall in a parent's week, that parent shall have the child from noon to 9:00 PM on Christmas Day. The winter vacation period shall apply to pre-school children and shall be determined by the vacation period of the public grade school in the custodial parent's school district.

Preference should be given to preserving long-standing family Christmas traditions, even if for example, one parent will always have Christmas Eve for their extended family's Christmas celebration. Section B modified to assure each parent will enjoy parenting time during ½ of the Christmas vacation.

- c) Holidays

In years ending with an even number the non-custodial parent shall exercise the following parenting time:

1. Memorial Day From Friday at 6:00 PM until Monday at 7:00 PM.
2. Labor Day From Friday at 6:00 PM until Monday at 7:00 PM

In years ending with an odd number, the non-custodial parent shall exercise the following parenting time:

1. Spring Break From Friday at 6:00 PM through Sunday of the following weekend at 7:00 PM.
2. Easter From Friday at 6:00 PM until Sunday at 7:00 PM.
3. Fourth of July From 6:00 PM on July 3 until 10:00 AM on July 5.
4. Halloween On Halloween evening from 6:00 PM until 9:00 PM, or at such time as coincides with the scheduled time for trick or treating in the community where the non-custodial parent resides.

In such years, the custodial parent shall exercise the following parenting time:

1. Memorial Day From Friday at 6:00 p.m. until Monday at 7:00 p.m.
2. Labor Day From Friday at 6:00 p.m. until Monday at 7:00 p.m.; and,

3. Thanksgiving From 6:00 p.m. on Wednesday until 7:00 p.m. on Sunday.
3. Religious Holiday Religious-based holidays shall be considered by the parties and added to the foregoing holiday schedule when appropriate. The addition of such holidays shall not affect the Christmas vacation parenting time, however, they may affect the Christmas day and Easter parenting time.

SECTION III PARENTING TIME WHEN DISTANCE IS A MAJOR FACTOR

Where there is a significant geographical distance between the parents, scheduling parenting time is fact sensitive and requires consideration of many factors which include employment schedules, the costs and time of travel, the financial situation of each parent, the frequency of the parenting time and others.

1. General Rules Applicable The general rules regarding parenting time as set forth in Section I of these guidelines shall apply.
2. Parenting Time Schedule The parents shall make every effort to establish a reasonable parenting time schedule. When distance is a major factor, the following parenting time schedule may be helpful:
 - a) Child Under 3 Years Of Age For a child under 3 years of age, the non-custodial parent shall have the option to exercise parenting time in the community of the custodial parent up to two (2) five hour periods each week. The five-hour period may occur on Saturday and Sunday on alternate weekends only.
 - b) Child 3 and 4 Years of Age For a child 3 and 4 years of age, up to six (6) one-week segments annually, each separated by at least (6) weeks, including the pickup and return of the child, no segment shall exceed eight (8) days.
 - c) Child 5 Years of Age and Older For a child 5 years of age and older, seven (7) weeks of the school summer vacation period and seven (7) days of the school winter vacation plus the entire spring break, including both weekends if applicable. Such parenting time, however, shall be arranged so that the custodial parent shall have religious holidays, if celebrated, in alternate years.
3. Priority of Summer Visitation Summer parenting time with the non-custodial parent shall take precedence over summer activities (such as Little League) when parenting time cannot be reasonably scheduled around such events. Under such circumstances, the non-custodial parent shall attempt to enroll the child in a similar activity in his or her community.
4. Extended Parenting Time Notice The non-custodial parent shall give notice to the custodial parent of the selection by April 1 of each year. If such notice is not given, the custodial parent shall make the selection.
5. Special Notice of Availability When the non-custodial parent is in the area where the child resides, or when the child is in the area where the non-custodial parent resides, liberal parenting time shall be allowed. The parents shall provide notice to each other, as far in advance as possible, of such parenting opportunities.

LR20-FL00-CVDR-7 SUPPORT AND MAINTENANCE STANDARDS

- (A) Except in unusual circumstances, the Courts shall follow the schedule of support payments and maintenance set forth in the Indiana Child Support Guidelines, including all explanations and formulas.
- (B) Temporary maintenance shall equal 33-1/3% of the parties' combined net income (net income is defined as gross income minus deductions for any other prior court ordered child support, legal duty of support, other orders of maintenance paid, income producing expenses, and federal, state or local taxes paid). Any order for temporary maintenance shall expire ninety (90) days after the date upon which the order becomes effective. A party seeking an extension of an order for temporary maintenance shall file an appropriate petition and at a hearing shall show good cause for the extension.

(C) Maintenance paid to a party shall be deducted from the payor's income and added to the recipient's income, and determinations of child support and attorney fees obligations shall be based on those incomes as so adjusted.

(D) If both a support order and a maintenance order are entered, the parties shall recalculate support promptly after ninety (90) days so as to reflect the expiration of the maintenance order. The parties shall calculate support during both the maintenance period and thereafter, and shall file the results with the Court.

(E) If the non-custodial parent has continuous custody of one or more of the parties' minor children for a period of seven (7) days or more, the child support shall abate by one-half ($\frac{1}{2}$), pro rata, for each child in such continuous custody, until said child or children are returned to the custodial parent. That portion of support attributable to child care expenses for said child or children shall be totally abated.

(F) Medical insurance. Whichever party can provide the most comprehensive policy of medical insurance for the child(ren) at the lowest cost shall provide said insurance. The amount of the insurance premiums shall then be allocated between the parties on the percentage-of-income basis. If the non-custodial parent pays the insurance premiums, that parent shall receive credit against support paid each week in the amount of that parent's allocated portion of medical insurance. If the custodial parent pays the medical insurance premiums, that parent shall receive an additional amount of support each week equal to the non-custodial parent's percentage of medical insurance premiums. For good cause shown, and following a hearing at which both parties are given an opportunity to be present, the Court may in its discretion waive the requirement that medical insurance be provided for the benefit of minor children.

(G) Educational expenses through grade 12. A Guidelines-based support order shall encompass all ordinary educational expenses through the high school level. If appropriate, extraordinary educational expenses for children who have not yet completed high school, including private school tuition and costs of tutoring, shall be determined as an addition to support and shall be divided between the parties in proportion to their respective weekly adjusted incomes.

(H) Educational expenses after grade 12. Post high school educational expenses shall be determined as either an addition to, or in lieu of support. Except in unusual circumstances, an award of such expenses shall be limited to the lesser of:

- 1) The actual annual expenditures for tuition, room board, books, transportation, fees and miscellaneous expenses for the student; or
- 2) The annual cost of tuition, room, board, books, transportation, fees, and miscellaneous expenses which would be incurred by an Indiana resident attending the Bloomington campus of Indiana University as a resident student.

The Custodial parent and the child shall be responsible for making, timely applications for all scholarships and grants for which the child might be eligible. Other than in exceptional circumstances, gifts and trust funds intended for college, scholarships and grants shall be deducted from the educational expenses. All educational tax benefits (e.g. Hope Scholarship Credits and Lifetime Learning Credits) shall be applied by the party receiving them to the payment of educational expenses. Thereafter, the child shall be responsible for twenty-five percent (25%) of the remaining expenses, and the balance shall be divided between the parties in proportions to their respective weekly adjusted income. Except in unusual circumstances, the amount of support determined under the Guidelines shall be wholly abated when the child is not in residence. The child shall execute any and all documents, and perform any and all other acts, reasonably necessary to afford both parents access to all available information regarding, grades, attendance, financial awards, grants and scholarships, and school disciplinary matters.

(I) Income Tax Benefits. The parties shall allocate income tax benefits for a minor child equitably, but in such a manner as to maximize tax benefits. A non-custodial party shall claim such tax benefits only if that party shall have paid all support due through the end of the affected calendar year by January 31 of the following year. Both parties shall execute any forms necessary to carry out the requirements of this paragraph. A party's refusal to sign such forms may be punishable by contempt or by imposition of other sanctions, including modification of the current support obligation to recapture any tax benefit lost by the non-custodial parent.

(J) All petitions to abate or modify child support orders which are filed by child support payors shall include a statement of the amount of the arrearage, if any, owed by petitioner in child support, and in the payment of the Clerk's annual fee for the collection and distribution of child support.

(K) So long as one or more the parties' children remain unemancipated or the beneficiary of an order for contribution to educational needs, the parties shall, upon request by either of them, exchange verification of income in the form of his or her most recent federal income tax return. Such income tax return shall be complete and include all attachments thereto. Such exchange shall be required no more often than once annually. Such exchange shall be concluded within two weeks of the making of such request. In the event that either party had not filed a federal income tax return for the tax year last concluded, that party shall provide the other with that federal income tax return described above, together with written verification of current income. Such verification may include a paycheck stub disclosing a year-to-date income or a current profit and loss statement reflecting self-employment or partnership income. It is the purpose of this rule to foster the exchange of accurate and complete income information in order to avoid needless litigation. This rule shall be liberally construed in order to achieve those ends.

The attorneys shall also discuss the length of time probably required for trial of the case and, in any case for which a jury has been requested, the possibility of waiving the jury and trying the case to the Court alone.
- 4) Following the conference of attorneys, and at least five (5) days before the pre-trial conference, the plaintiff shall file a proposed pre-trial order, signed by counsel for all parties. The proposed order shall cover the following points:

- a. The nature of the action;
 - b. The basis of jurisdiction of the Court;

 - k. A numbered or lettered list of trial proposed exhibits of each party, as appropriate;
 - l. A concise statement of any disagreement regarding rules of law relating to anticipated jury instructions;
 - m. Appropriateness of ADR processes; and
 - n. A certification by each attorney or pro se party of compliance with the provisions of TR 16.
- 5) A pretrial order, once signed by the Court, shall govern the course of the trial. The pretrial order shall not be amended except by consent of the parties and the Court or by further order of the Court to prevent manifest injustice. All pleadings shall be deemed merged into the pretrial order.
- 6) If the parties fail to timely file any material required to be filed prior to the pretrial conference, the Court may postpone the pretrial conference and take further action as appropriate.

(D) TRIAL SETTINGS

- 1) Except for good cause shown, the parties and counsel involved in any civil jury trial set as a "backup" trial shall be prepared to begin the trial when Scheduled.
- 2) All attorneys and all parties appearing pro se shall be responsible for discovering the sequence of cases and shall be prepared to try their cases on the date scheduled.
- 3) Whenever a Court sets a criminal case for trial and the defendant is not then present, the defendant within twenty-one days thereafter shall file a signed written acknowledgment of the trial date or shall in open court orally acknowledge the trial date.
- 4) No dispositive motions, including but not limited to motions for summary judgment, shall be filed in any action within one hundred twenty (120) days of a scheduled trial of that action without leave of court.
